

STAY CONNECTED WITH

Next week is one of the most important in the Israeli calendar. Monday evening sees the start of Yom Hazikaron – the memorial day for fallen Israeli soldiers and victims of terror. This is a sombre day for all Israelis, with few families unaffected by the violence the country has experienced.

On Tuesday evening and into Wednesday the atmosphere changes to one of celebration as the nation celebrates its 72nd birthday on Yom Ha'atzmaut.

UJIA WILL BE MARKING BOTH OF THESE IMPORTANT DATES:

YOM HAZIKARON TEKES: Monday 27th April 8pm live from the Great Synagogue in Jerusalem. To watch visit www.ujia.org/tekes

YOM HA'ATZMAUT VIRTUAL BUSINESS BREAKFAST: Wednesday 29th April 9.15am. To register for a limited place visit www.ujia.org/vyhbb

And there is plenty more happening all over the community. See what else is happening here...
