

CREATIVE CHALLENGES

Israeli Art at the Venice Bienale!

The Venice Bienale is an art exhibition that occurs every two years. Each country has a pavilion filled with artworks.

Create an artwork for Israel's pavilion that captures some aspect of the spirit of Israel. It can be in any form you like - a poster, a model, a film, a song - it could even be a cake - anything that you enjoy creating.

Take a photograph, recording or video of your creation and send it to etgarchallenge@gmail.com

Ben Gurion's diary - He's back!

David Ben-Gurion was Israel's first Prime Minister. He led the country to independence, and through war, poverty and hardship.

Imagine that he comes back in 2020 and spends 7 days in Israel. Write his experiences and thoughts in the form of a diary, no longer than 200 words.

Send your entry by email to etgarchallenge@gmail.com

How to enter:

You can enter one or both of the challenges.

Send your entries to etgarchallenge@gmail.com including your name and school. Final date for all entries in both challenges is 10th July.

The best entries received by the earlier date of 30th June will be showcased during the online Etgar Challenge!